“What I love most about playing piano is remixing my favorite songs!”

— Dawn Martin

Dawn Martin is a Detroit-born and raised pianist, vocalist, and songwriter known for her soulful, elegant interpretations of Motown, pop, and timeless classics. Her dynamic piano performances blend emotion, sophistication, and a distinctive artistic style shaped by a lifelong passion for live music.

Her early experiences in Detroit led to a diverse career spanning modeling, acting, touring, television appearances, and international performance work. She has appeared on major television programs including Oprah, Donahue, Montel, and Geraldo, as well as in national commercials and television shows.

Today, Dawn delivers polished, engaging live piano and vocal performances for weddings, private events, corporate functions, and upscale venues, creating refined musical atmospheres tailored to each audience.
