Detroit-Born Pianist, Singer & Songwriter Dawn Martin Shines with Soulful Style and Star Power

Los Angeles, CA — Dawn Martin, a captivating Pianist, Singer, Songwriter, and SAG-AFTRA/AEA actress, is lighting up stages with her elegant, soul-infused remixes of Motown, pop, and soul classics. Known for her originality, mesmerizing presence, and multi-talents, Dawn brings Detroit-bred style and sophistication to every performance.

“What I love most about playing piano is REMIXING my favorite songs,” says Dawn — and her audiences agree. Whether she's reimagining a Marvin Gaye classic or delivering a heartfelt ballad, her dynamic performances blend artistry with elegance.

Raised in Detroit, Dawn's lifelong passion for music began early. At just 13, she snuck out and made it to the front row of a Marvin Gaye concert at Cobo Hall — and the legendary singer held her hand and serenaded Dawn with a portion of “Distant Lover.”

Her journey spans coast to coast and beyond: Dawn has toured with the band Asian Eyes, performed for U.S. troops, and was featured as a lead singer on NBC's Eerie, Indiana. Her TV credits include Days of Our Lives, national commercials, and appearances on Oprah, Donahue, Montel, The BBC, and more. She's also worked as a successful print and runway model in Paris, France and across the U.S.

Dawn holds a B.A. in Journalism, attended USC Law School, and later won a Published Opinion from the U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals — representing herself against a major California law firm and a U.S. Attorney.

Also an author, Dawn's bold, empowering book Fast Girls Finish Last: A Girl's Guide to Becoming a Virgin with Attitude! became a national hit and Book of the Month in libraries across America.

Today, she performs live across California and Las Vegas and is available for concerts, weddings, festivals, and private events. Dawn is also a proud supporter of St. Jude's Ranch for Children and Opportunity Village.
